Frances Fonza is the Director of Choral Activities at Southeastern Louisiana University. She teaches both undergraduate and graduate courses in music education and conducting. Additionally, she directs the Concert Choir, Bella Voce (Treble Ensemble), and Gospel Choir. Dr. Fonza taught choral music at the middle and high school levels in Kentucky and at the Duke Ellington School of the Arts in Washington DC. She earned a bachelor's degree in music education at the University of Missouri-Columbia, a master's degree in music education, and a doctorate in music education/choral conducting at Florida State University. Prior to her appointment at Southeastern, Dr. Fonza served as Director of Choral Activities at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio. She also served on the faculty at Stephen F. Austin State University and University of Central Arkansas. Choirs under her direction have participated in state, regional, and national music festivals. Dr. Fonza is an active singer, clinician, and adjudicator, frequently engaging in guest conducting opportunities nationally and internationally. She has conducted all state, honor, public school, community, and church choirs. Her research interests are community partnerships, healthy singing in Gospel music, the versatile voice, and tone building strategies used in the choral classroom.

Accompanist, Erin Tennyson

Erin Tennyson is honored to once again be the accompanist for the 2025 Maryland All State Senior Treble Chorus and 2025 All State Junior Mixed Chorus. Erin was born and raised in St. Mary's County, MD. She graduated from Leonardtown High School in 2004, then received her Bachelor's Degree in Music Education with a concentration in piano from Lebanon Valley College. After graduation, Erin worked at Benjamin Banneker Elementary School from 2008 – 2012, teaching K - 5 general music and chorus. While working, she earned her Masters Degree in Leadership in Teaching from the College of Notre Dame in Baltimore. Erin is now the Music Director at Lexington Park United Methodist Church. She is also the Co-Conductor and accompanist for the Southern Maryland Encore Chorale, accompanist for St. Mary's County Public Schools, the College of Southern Maryland Choir, and Hope in Harmony: a non-profit distinguished choir in Southern MD. Recently, she had the honor to accompany the Charles County High School All County Chorus, Alexandria Choral Society and All-Shore Honors High School Chorus. Erin's piano career would not be possible without the love and support of her husband, Tim, and her four beautiful children, Claire, Will, Belle, and Hope.

Maryland Music Educators Association is supported by a grant from the Maryland States Arts Council, an agency funded by the State of Maryland and the National Endowment for the Arts.
