Dr. Kellori Dower is the Dean of Visual and Performing Arts at Cypress College in California. Before this, she directed two award-winning high school choral programs and served as Director of Choral Activities at the collegiate level. She has also held administrative positions at the K12 level. She was the 2016 Outstanding Music Educator Award from the California Music Educators Association Southeastern section. She has written several choral works performed by the San Diego Symphony, with her music published by Hal Leonard. Her choral ensembles have performed at prestigious venues such as Carnegie Hall, Chicago's Orchestra Hall, and New York's Lincoln Center. An active choral adjudicator and clinician, Dr. Dower has conducted All-State and regional High School Honor ensembles across the U.S. She is the immediate past President of the National Collegiate Choral Organization and serves on the California Arts Council grant review committee. Additionally, she represents the Southern Section in the California Choral Directors Association and teaches on the graduate faculty at the Longy School of Music of Bard College. Dr. Dower is a proud mother of four, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., and a former mellophone player and drummer at Prairie View A&M University.

Accompanist, Jeffrey Winfield

Jeffrey Winfield is the Supervisor of Fine Arts for Harford County Public Schools. Prior to supervision, he was the proud choral director at Edgewood High School. His graduate degree in music was earned from Florida State University, with an undergraduate from Towson University. His most enjoyable time of the year is when he is the pianist for the MD All-State Senior Mixed Choir where he has the pleasure of collaborating with amazing student musicians from all over Maryland!

MMEA would like to thank the Maryland Choral Educators Association (MCEA) and the board, staff, and volunteers for making this event possible!
